TOMOKAN '77

ROLLINS COLLEGE
WINTER PARK, FLORIDA

Set like a gem amid the waters blue,
Where palms and pines their fragrant incense brew,
O Alma Mater, as the swift year runs Sing we thy praise, thy daughters and thy sons.

Sons who uphold thy fair unsullied
fame,
Daughters who love thine ancient honored name,

True to thy colors blazoned far on high —
Gold of the sun and blue of bending sky.

Far from thy walls, wherever we may go,
Still with a heart where loyal memories glow,

Still with a song for Rollins
ringing clear,
Guide of our youth, O Alma Mater, dear.

— R. M. Powers

"Hello? Hello? Yes, this is Gladys — I'm over in the Chi-O House could you please speak up a little? The din here is unbelievable! Karen, the eternal personnel chairman, and Kent, the closet queen are having a pre-Pub counseling session on the trials and tribulations of visitation, and at the same time they're both trying to persuade Pat that labs do take precedence over tennis, especially for pre-vet majors. Meg wants to party and can't find Beth, who, unbeknowest to Meg, has been in the kitchen for the last three days searching the refrigerator for her steak. ("Can't anyone in this house read?") Dottie "I-am-a-treat" Dyess is training Gay-Boy to take over the editorship of the Tomokan, but all the damn bird wants to do is curl his eyelashes. Wonder what Big Deal would say — Negotiations are being made to secure Peggy's role as Charlie's Angel for another year — "more fringe benefits!", Marg argues while cleverly trying to whisk Noel's Doritos away. If Polly does not stop boom-booming about superstitions, I'll have to put in a complaint to prez. Carol. She won't be hard to find you can track that girl down by her laugh alone. Speaking of laughs, did you hear that Mole wants to elope this week? Someone should give her a tranquilizer she's been fake crying again. I just hope she remembers not to invite Critchfield to the champagne reception!

I tell you — the kitchen, as usual, is like Grand Central Station. Sarah is experimenting with her new recipe, "Animal Crackers ala Panama Red", and Adair is making her eighteenth bowl of Mrs. Grass' chicken noodle soup, while visions of a noodle franchise dance in her head, Lynne is in on that deal too, and is discussing the possibility of opening a Noodle Hut in Denver that caters to slow learners only. Nutty Colleen is trying to explain the finer points of squirrel-feeding, and refuses to leave the living room unless everyone has left. Here comes Laura — she can't seem to find her car and needs it to go to the Jade Room. I think I saw it in front of the Pub. Karen B. just flew in the door a minute ago — she's been practicing her "coffee, tea, or Me?" on all of us of late. Oh — there's Lisa packing her bags, getting ready to go to Daytona — is Rollins turning into a suitcase school? Kathy's busy making another Australian college and is still working on the acceptance speech she'll give after receiving the award for being the only Rollins co-ed to have measles this year . . . I can hear Noel asking everyone if they've used her phone — they've nominated her for Disco Queen of the House . . . Becca can't decide whether to watch "Rich Man, Poor Man" or the Redskins game, and Flea, wearing that dirty shirt is deep in thought creating the latest in "practical" jokes. Batch is thinking of wedding bells, and Lynnie loves her T-shirts and shorts. Miss Arneson's exercise nutrition class hasn't met since Fall Term and the effects are obvious throughout the house. Gail's drying her hair for the third time today trying to get ready to go out shopping for shirts. Everybody's been looking for Val all day. She missed her weekly visit to the living room and they're worried that she might have developed Annie Russell-itis —. Meanwhile, Bib and Pam are tossing their cookies up in duet in anticipation of the next "binge". They'll not be attending school this year like dat (work be a haucable, goony suckah). Instead, Bibby sticks to domestic chores and bourbon, and Pamela Brown takes various mid-semester vacations and remains as fickle as ever. Mary just wants to keep the bathroom doors closed and secured at all hours.

Those crazy new actives have gotten tired of filling up paper cups with water and have moved on to more important things — like filling up paper cups with beer. OOps gotta to talk to you later bye!"

We miss you Andrea, Rosie, Terri, Kim, Lynn, our thoughts are with you.

KAPPA ALPHA ORDER

The Kappa Alpha Order has once again survived the Housing Review Board and many female assaults. The Brothers have had both an exciting and constructive year. The Seniors depart (in part) leaving many a legend. They also leave the Junior class with an impossible problem — How do you replace Jimmy Peak!?

Peak kept the "books" this fall and I don't mean the "R" book. C-Bob came back, took his miney out of the Banks and took up where Irish lift off. Tino came back too, he had a Devine fall but played with himself all spring. Homer was wrecked, Brad has "D" but let her "Flo"rence. (Hi Katie) Harvard spent his sixth and seventh term on academic probation while roomie Scoop learned how to pick fruit and coffee beans. Cabell spent the year fighting off girls and hangovers as well as that little Itch from last year. Peter proved once and for all that he'd not only walk a mile but go all the way to D.C. for you know what! re: Joyce!! Ward might graduate but it will be scary — Dennis got lost in the waves and a babe — how Busch! Rip missed the whole year while fighting with an NCR — Ryan almost spent enough time in admissions to come back next year. Wheelie took it easy and learned to play the vio-Lynn. The KA's and Big Jules suffered through another year at presidential Edicts or Eadons as they became known. Bart was seen Teetoring at various functions. Chip lost one but had an affair with Kelly much to Ed's dismay who said he wanted to be Rip's brother in law. Shubes tried in vain to stay out of trouble — thus his new nickname; Damage. Jeremy was fairly quiet More-y or less. Andy spent the fall in Australia and the spring on Mars. Peter became the number Juan man in the pants. Carter did a term research on Kunta Kitty. Sly got a new car but kept the same old . . . Morgan left his room alone but changed girls a million times — or vice versa (Hi Laura) Smusher has a new BMW — as far as we know he and Joanne are still waiting for it to snow. Buzzon went nuts after being confined to the tower. Marc, the hope of his class, went down the tubes but won't be taken for Grant(ed)! The Bomb was locked up in an institution after authorities learned he had hooked his heart up to a Strob light. Rob got back from abrosd(?) still in a daze.

The pledge class was the strangest array of inane misfits to ever be assembled in one place. Two Jacks, one from Texas that always looks like he belongs in a Bank(s) and the other with one thing going for him, his last name, Lee! Kenton tried to crush a patrol car with a Fiat. Bret tried to go crazy but couldn't get out of bed. Paul came from Canada but doesn't remember how to get home. Harry partied like a K.A. but . . . Mark and Clay were best friends — they share everything . . . Gene thought he found it but lost it in Morgan's room. Bancroft's okay if his mouth is shut. Parker's okay if hi's asliip and Lupo would be alright if he'd keep his damn hands in his pockets. Blondie is not alright and won't be until he loses his keys for good. Three new social members round out the order. First Boone who will soon be marrying some little Grub he dug up. O'Donnell might get by with frequent visits to the Dean(e). Dink's little brother is working his way through school doing Body work and fixing cars.

Flash! Peak will be buried at the kamm "I" after graduation Reception following at Harpers.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

It's been said that Theta's have never attained the ranking of first. However . . . they're always first in the Beanery, first in the Phi Delt House and only improving an outstanding group of girls, first in versatility . . .

Puka Pecka could be seen practicing psychiatry behind closed doors while Tinkerbell was casting her spells royally. Lynn, being so "Scholarly" in London, should have known to cork it, and Iris, our pyromaniac did a beautiful job redecorating the kitchen . . . Linda was seen star gazing from the local car wash while the phone rang on and on and on for Micki . . . Meanwhile, across the Atlantic, Sally discovered German ale sure beat Steak and Ale and Randy returned once more . . . We didn't know Rollins had so many European campuses . . . Kim W. and Jean spent a semester at Univ. of Dublin while Barbara sailed and dreamed of better days in Colorado . . . Nevertheless, Martha never missed her cocktail hour even though Stick somehow kept getting stuck in California . . . Big Jules' social inventiveness didn't help her on the Gong Show, but her cohort, Lizard, has been burning the candle at both ends . . . Squishy was seen gazing at herself saying, "Mirror, mirror on the wall, who's the fairest Fawcett of them all?" . . . Steve seems to be Julie N.'s new Deli delight . . . Tina, tastefully known as Tuna was seen running barefoot but with Security close behind . . . Dede, who are the flowers from???. . . Pat, we want to know if lunch at the Beef was really worth it? . . . Sha, trying to lead a more exciting life, signed up for free (?) motorcycle lessons . . . Mary Alice was heard throughout the house saying, "REALLY Pabst is the most UNbelievable beer in the entire world!" . . . Nancy didn't surprise us when her 20th turned into a birthday she'll always remember . . . Unfortunately C. J. often called D. B. has been breathing on lost dates while everyone wondered about Cindy — Is she or isn't she? Only her bulletin board knows for sure . . . Maria, don't you want to tell us about some of your late night rendezvous? . . . Somewhere on the second floor Diana rationalized, "Just one more M&M and then I'll go jog . . . Mary, while visiting her favorite bartender got cut short at Harper's, and little sister Debbie tried to help out . . . By the way D. B., why do they call you "Pickles"? . . . Somehow Sheree crewed all the way from Foxcroft to funky Nassau . . . Cheri wants everyone to know that she's the official dawgie while Cy tries to answer the question, "Is he really a pig?" . . . Our intelligent (?) Bush baby, Lisa, seemed to misplace an important ticket and almost missed her plane from Panama . . . Leslie, our top beagle, needs to be leashed while one smell of a beer and Bonnie's gone for the night. Meanwhile, Tracy read us a few rules of etiquette from her favorite book, Amy Vanderbilt and Kim P. lived up to her reputation of being a real Airhart . . . Sabrena spends hours in the kitchen apparently preparing new gourmet meals and Sara is off on a turn around towards Gibbs . . . Vicki can be heard singing all the way from Keene to the Club while Laura, our soon to be moviestar will no longer be Downunder but up on the Hills of Beverly . . . No one seems to be able to cure Kathy of being a non-stop workaholic and Mel, deciding to stop following her dreams settles at Harper's and orders her ninth and final Lite.

Finally, we want to congratulate 29 great new girls, who we know will proudly carry on the Theta tradition of being the best and one of the most diverse organizations on campus.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

As usual, the Kappas had a successful and momentous 1977.

Thanks to the pledge class, Winter Park Hospital will be adding a new wing. Roxanne M. gained a new birthmark. Ann B. gained a new scar on her chin. Bailey J. is still trying to find out how she tore the cartilage in her leg. Barbie B. spent nine days in traction and also had her speech impediment corrected at no extra charge.

Incoherent Inga was neither here nor there, but always went for triple olives.

Pooch and Jorie are watching for their stock in M & M's to split. Knight and Henry have kept the couch in the living room warm. Dana went from ice cream to wine and cheese. Has anyone seen Sandy L.?

Pix discovered that bacon bits were a good substitute for popcorn at the movies. Judy J. lost two out of three Johns. Dora has almost mastered the English language with Nancy Y. as her speech therapist. Cock-a-roachs? What did you expect from S.C.

Our illustrious and well spoken President (ha ha) Cathi W. monitored the second floor derelicts. Nothing surprises her anymore.

"Two-can" Janice B. was either at work or asleep. She also had the most challenging "little sis". Sixty people saw Jane K. without her earrings. How frightening. The Weatherhead no-tell motel had no vacancies.

Margaret L. had a trauma over the Rollins athletic teams. Soccer or baseball Margaux? Deane was continually confused about the radio, the television, the heat, and the location of her feet. Margaret P. and Robin M., our Kappa transfers, are still amazed. Destructo Reeves left us for married life.

The fearless foursome of Beth R., Melissa G., Janet D., and Maureen R., made tracks to the balcony to visit Pookey . . . The Beef, Harpers, and never missed the "I". Go for all the Gusto girls . . . it's loose . . .

As for the Nude Womens and off campus gang . . . Mardi paced about, Ginger cried a lot. Gretchen's into politics and mystery weekends. Karen J. spoke and Diane B. still hungry. Lisa G. is torn between alternative housing and keg parties. Claudia went international. Sally B's books were always balanced. Beth M's into giving toasts.

Lisa D., Boo, and Beth H . . . Where are you?

Give us whiskey, gin, or rye, we'll be Kappas until we die!

LAMBDA CHI PSI

When you're feeling down and out, wonderin' what this world's all about, I know a place that has the answer — step into the HOUSE and jump aboard the cruise to the skies where you'll find the boys looking for a light from Edward P. Hooker, our new Chi Psi brother, in whose house we have dwelt fraternally since the beginning of time.

Joe checked with Hulio as he was first to see the light. He said, "How I love it when my thoughts run to the land of make believe." Zeke thought he was first, but not so — instead he was "blinded by the light." Clay Dogs was back from Australia with the latest in mens hair fashion — a transplant from his noggin to his chin. And we think Goody came back. George is not working at the pool any longer, seemed to be drying up.

Moon got kneed at the beach so he was laid upstairs for a while? Yetterman was constantly smiling as he seemed to be enjoying the fruits of the year. Jerry improved his jumping — he never got wet. One day he was able to open his eyes but looking down a .38 and watching the coot scoot he wished he hadn't.

For Ernie it used to be "me and my bros" but now and forever it'll be "weiand my bros". Ernie went to Puerto Rico (minus one) but Fogle went to San Jose to pay his dues and look for his socks. Cahall working at the Steak and Ale always seemed to serve his meat well. The Sponge bros kept absorbing the lagers as they contemplated hooking up to Cable on their new color T.V. Carl finally got rid of his motorcycle only to find a better ride on two wheels. Chuckles in a bad slump needed a few hits to boost his average. The rooster crowed "Balba-Looey", only to see Burrell in his window flexing. Dash grabbed the hen by the knee and they were off. Volkert got engaged — morning, noon, night and all the time.

Wayne will bite the dust also, if he can raise his arm by then. It snowed for the first time at Rollins but the Yott-type Dude had seen snow here before. Don found out that starting in left field was his cup of T. President Munson had a Bud too many and his Head became too big for his body. Crowley's been working all year on unsuccessfully controlling a dangerous gas in the lab next door. Freddy Ruiz (Rooze) still can't find anything to dance to. Barny is all excited about all the new out-houses around campus disguised as trash cans. Krueger hopes to have a few more one-hitters before the season is over.

Scoop went back to the Beantown to make sure things were cool while Boston Bros Fred and Pete prayed for him late one night in the Chapel. In the first Rollins-F.T.U. boxing clash Pat and Cal cleaned up at I-Hop. Teddie Bear keeps collecting those nickles for those "special" nights out while the littlest skeev of all brings them over when needed.

Hang Times past time is spent mostly in the air. Matz agreed but he felt he got the "raw end" of the deal. Benny stood pumped in the corner warding off the savages. Ah! A classic year past in the wink of an eye.

As the birth of our nine new brothers (Herbie, Kevin, Rick, Toad, Durk, Jaybar, Loops, Sco, and B. J.) came about the light shown brighter than ever and beconed them to the skies.

NCM

Sitting down: Cathy Parks, Meg Brown, Beth Lightborn, Caroline Jogerst, Debbie Hollister, Mika Nastasic, Kathy Mitchell; Standing: Brooke Robinson, Cary Nowak, Laura McGinnis, Elizabeth Todd, Liz Connelly, Cherie Weitzner, Susu Dishman, Kitty Keresy, Sarah Taylor, Carol Schubert, Jeanne Seiler, Nancy Norman, Diana Wright, Margie Lynn, Nancy Curry; Back row sitting: Sandy Carter, Stacy Gross, Noel Hardwick, Marcia Murray, Amy Palmer, Cynde Clarke, Margeret Banks, Joan O'Sullivan, Jody Morrison.

We are finally beginning to understand why we are called Non Compis Mentis. We only wish that its English translation were not "Not of Sound Mind." We have upheld the usual tradition of getting loaded and forgetting our duties, bombing out in the intramurals, and spending our dues at the FBI. But who cares, we still throw the best parties on campus.

Girl's Club, Girl's Club . . . S.T. has been seen driving down Interlachen looking for a white porche . . . Joan has opted for the locals in Winter Park . . . Sarah and Joan proved without a shadow of a doubt that they could be the littlest ones while Carrie was going for the biggest one . . . Meat Loafed to Villa Nova for a presidential dinner, Tommy had a rash, but she Correctol-ed it later . . . No Cash Notman loosened her Tys this year and who's racing whom down the road? Is it Bug behind the wheel? . . . Jody and Carrie are still working on their list of the Top 40 and hope to have it completed before they graduate . . . Are the demands of a Bear and a dog to much for one NCM to handle? . . . Hey Elisabeth, variety is supposed to be the spice of life. Is that what's in Ohio, Virginia, Tennessee, Ft. Lauderdale, etc.? . . . Romances really reached the Boyling point for Terri this year . . . A diamond is forever, are you engrossed enough Sandy? . . . In the Christmas spirit, Caroline found herself under the table instead of under the mistletoe . . . Susu pooh-poohed to D.C. to see C.C. K-I-S-S-I-N-G! . . . We are avidly awaiting the return of Liz from outer space. Ivey's may have failed, but we have scissors too . . . Debbie bellied her way across the stage, only to find herself on the wrong end of a fondue fork . . . Mitch discovered that puking is more fun than Australilia . . . Anne was busy keeping the opposite side of the campus in line . . . Cathy was wary of the new guys on campus, she couldn't help Juaning something else . . . Hey Curray, what Dids you find in Australilia? . . . Katie wants to go to nursing school and we hear Harvard has a good one . . . Laura has discovered that the walls in KA aren't as thick as she thought . . . Cynde ran the show for Pan Hell, but she had her Miller beer to keep her going . . . Margaret has taken up skiing and has discovered that she can have private lessons in her own home . . . Mika, we needed your support during basketball and softball seasons — where did HuGo? . . . Unfortunately, we did not see much of the Bahama Mama this year. She was treasuring other things . . . Ellen has departed from the Rollins scene in search of better and bigger things . . . Brooke learned not to laugh last at the FBI — Could Leroy take on an Amazon? . . . We were all impressed by the suave manner in which Diana handled her shrimp and coctails this year. There will be no dancing on their balcony two years in a row . . . The members of NCM have finally analyzed our president's problem, her inability to stay in one place, unless of course, it's Tommy's room. In all seriousness, we'd like to thank Carol for doing such an excellent job this year. Her leadership, support, and unending patience, make her one of the biggest assets to our sorority.

Congratulations to our new members. We're counting on you to pick up where we left off — if you can find the pieces.

Goodbye and good luck to our four seniors. May there always be a Hoover in your closet.

P.S. Morrison, where's the money???

PHI DELTA THETA

Balcony: David Steph, Chris Domijan, Bill McAlmont, Andy Eberle, Eph Helton, Mike Mehrtens, Ken Block, Chris Mueller, John Davis, John Hanlon; First row: Jeff Spencer, Dave Weinstein, Steve Lawbacker, Simon Talbot, John Clixby, Glenn Meckles, Royal Raidle, Russ Harris, Bob Escher, Bubs Bailey; Second row: Eric Coody, Tony Lembeck, Eddie Berger, John Atwell; Third row: Peter Powell, David Pearson, Will Graves, Dennis Pennachio, Ricky Burgess, Alex Wilson, Lenny Rosow, Andy Leeker, Smith Benners, John Webbert, Bob Hagnauer, Hunt Logan; Fourth row: Derek Fuchs, Jody Kielbasa, Damian Contino, Bill Helmich, John Gegenheimer, Andy Stephens.

The brothers of Phi Delta Theta, at the corner of Holt and 42nd Street, once again boasted of double occupancy. According to Physical Plant, double beds seem to be at an all time high. The brothers would like to announce the formation of the honorable order of campfire girls, who successfully kept us warm through an unseasonably cold winter (from September to May).

While on Safari, Will Graves managed to weather the pygmy attack. According to Dr. Samuel P., pygmies always end up paying their dues. Andy E; we found you a spare for your blue Mercedes, after you burned rubber while laying a patch. Walter, in confidence, remember sex and booze will cramp your style. Puck, our million dollar baby, loves to play blocks, and our frozen Grapefruit still drinks sour juice. Smith showed his true whopper and appeared out of the closet. Bubs, do you still sleep with your stick? Tracing McCalmont's past, we found him with his finger caught up in the faucet. Although Crash Stephens may lose his Hub this spring, he will never lose his peanuts. Johnny Davis was last seen "Bailing" out his little silver bullet at Disney World. Kenny lost his blocks in a brook, Escher became talented hoping to move to the fourth floor, and Glenn, there's only "three things" that we like about you, but we can't remember. Clacker lost his golf balls, but Terry found them in the chapter closet. Emi got lost in a cave this fall and had a royal falling out by Christmas. Meyer, with only good intentions, got tangled in BARBWIRe. Leeks putter went astray and has now gone into hiding. Geoff, if you wanna play golf, you gotta pay! Hunt, is it true Bert is gay? Ricky has found a nice garage to park his car, but only three nights a week. Tommy, everyone knows there are no C's in an H. bush. Eric tried to claw his way through a gaybar. Leonard, congratulations, it can only get better. Laubacher, is your first name "Smith"? Greg S., did you Channel 9 T.'s? Simon, "What's your problem?" Mr. Hanlon, you finally got respect: your back door is squeaking. Brad drove his MG to the Colleeners and met his Fayte. One rainy night Kelvy forgot his raincoat: a new brother is on the way. Alki I and Alki II the test twins are still hanging in together through ups and downs. Stevie Miller has one thing to say, "Don't laugh, your daughter may be in here." Johnny W. plays a hard game, but always comes up with a Hassell. Although David had a crummy year, our V.P. bids Addeos to us all. As we look back on this year reflections have shown that Eph, our president, will continue to be well enDOWed.

To our pledges, we can only hope that you don't torpedo the ship which we've developed for you.

Well so far this year has been quite productive with the '73 Pledge Class enjoying Rollins life and preparing to enter the cold, cruel world. All but one are applying to graduate school so they might remain professional students, ah what a life! The other one is planning to move pianos for a living. What they have contributed Zeta Phi will long be remembered; all of them holding offices their senior year, all rushing like hell in fall '76 and all taking an interest in elections with their "full vote" even though "they would not effect them." Therefore a special thanks is in order for jed, jeff, jim, jeff, ed, brian, and ted.

Now on with the show. Jed has not had so GREAT a year this year but maybe his Commandering Spirit will help next year. Meanwhile, B. has been trying to live up to his nickname all year — how did that name get started anyway? Morgan has been keeping his "Phi Delt boys" in line this year as well as covering up any embezzeling. Hoff took the plunge with our Sweetheart and was heard singing the "Virgin Song" all the way to the lake. In addition, 2/3's Ramey has continued his frolicking ways but now he does it in the TKE house and Bush. Buff inherited a new nickname "Walrus" because he looks a lot like one when "The Glasses Are Off." Bobbo's been peddling into Hoov's stirrups and Tylers heart while demonstrating that some business majors do study. Mingo started a "nipponese" invasion and our American frat has not been the same since. Herbie is down-and-out-of-here. Back at the farm, Bobby has found his Poppy of the Field this year and she helps him with his golf strokes. Cheese has started a new contact sport among the brothers in which everyone is vulnerable . . . so that's what got elected President of the Vices. The pledges had a fit with Calzone when he used a Tarzan-like escape route . . . did that tree have coconuts? Timmy helped himself to the dogs, Ed with the pledges, and Barbara to learn about Rollins. Silky's bang-up arrest in the beginning of the year convinced him to give up all of his vices except the "Gambling Man's Best Friend". Al has been a quiet monk this year staying away from the girls and perfecting the skill of removing two cases of Michelob caps per week with his bare tooth! Gary is back with us after some personal problems — his little league football team lost. Zephilis is by far the most active social member we have but those short-shorts gotta go. Hale has been rowing after personal glory and Bobbo's position . . . what is a Horshack? Greg continues to avoid "mellow" statements despite repeated requests from fraters. Wild Bill Jr. smoked himself out of room 28 . . . all the way to Miami. "Fatty" has become active chasing "tuna" but he will not admit its source . . . maybe he can't remember his notorious ride!

The '76 Pledge Class definitely showed as much interest as the '73ers. Their victory in 8 of 11 offices should be an indication of their desire to get involved. Steve gets the award for the TKE jersey with the crudest nickname. Hey Ox, you've had a Phi-nominal year at dating — does that come with being a mascot? Woppy got the wet "wop" this year and he claims his little brother will get the same next year. Eric has been busy irrigating his face to keep his "growth" growing and to impress the ladies . . . he needs something! The only "Sain" member of the pledge class stays that way by watching area movies more times than anyone else. Uncle Billy has tried everyone's patience as well as many girls' reputations. G.T.W. has attempted to follow in his father's footsteps despite remaining "Misty-eyed". Vonder plans to "air-drop" supplies from Chicago for this spring's RC Weekend. Greg has been daydreaming of a way to move into the TKE House. Kent foamed at the mouth when he "rolled out the barrels" . . . what no experience with kegs from Woolworth's? Manny claims to have been born with a basketball in his hands which is consistent with his heritage, but then TKE is an "international" fraternity. Rick has been "snoring" fire since he joined and this may help him to take Hale's place in the varsity boat.

X CLUB

GALE HAL

And so as another year comes to a close, we may call to mind some of the momentous events which makes us the infamous "Club".

"Stain" had a keg thrown against his door, and due to circumstances beyond anyones control, he's been ragging ever since. Gilbreth bought a new Volvo and ventured the treacherous "Dirt Road". Nissom thinks he should find himself a cat. Ask Kuntz what time "All My Children" and "Love of Life" are on (Primo PW) B. O. used to have a live in maid; now he's got a fine collection of photos and a half made bed. During that cold snap Tate took care of the "Red Bush" (its chilly in Philly) and what ever happened to the "Bahama Mamma" and "Steady Nettie" Bubbles, Junior signed up for Family Planning and advanced giggling after "strup'n Johny" And speaking of Johny — unusual noises were heard one night after disembarking from the FBI. Todd got tangled in Thalia's web! Wa — hoo — The two gay huskies belong to "Sunshine". Schmitt's out drinking champagne with Love, wonder why? "New Guy" lost "Disco Duck-Stien" as a bed-warmer after coming back from Spain. Poor Dale and Chuck. "Hit some volleyballs Wertz?" "I've known him for . . . uh . . . well, 20 years I guess" — Dicky Schmitt, O. D. had a little better millage second semester. Sleazy Seavey hasn't contracted anything serious, yet! Berger, there's still room for the Australilia trip — first semester, second semester, the year after that —. Bruce you want to catch a buzz. Eric, you want to catch a buzz. The "Psykos" are back, what we have done without them. "Fitz" gets bit by the Mad Dog and sleeps on the bathroom floor. Benjamin, still think you're number one. Richard is still in Act one. Charlie: "I'd just like to reiterate what Gordon said "Yes Sammy can Drink! Now who said Gordon Hall was hyper?" Van Sant has been adopted by some nice folks in Eatonville. To the Crummer boys — Lick, Scott, Teddy, and Leroy: make a million don't forget the Club. Last but not least, we wish "Good Luck" to our departing Seniors — Gross, you'll need it! "Frybrains". Bobby Reich, ski your buns off! To an honorary Life Member of the X Club (mimimal dues) Freddy Crangelo (all of us will be watching Sharda — in turns) And to our spectacular President, to whom we owe our house for, William Breda. To muzzlers that haven't been mentioned; Christy, Samaha, Toomey, Rick, "Fender" and No Nose Utley".
